THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI DIGVIJAY SINGH): (a) Yes, Sir. The Expenditure Reforms Commission (ERC) in its report pertaining to the Ministry of External Affairs has recommended closing down of seven Indian Missions abroad.

(b) The seven Missions recommended by the ERC for closure are in the following countries :

Botswana, Burkina Faso, Jamaica, Malta. Papua New Guinea. Seychelles and Peru.

(c) The Ministry of External Affairs, independent of ERC's recommendations regarding closure of these seven Missions, has decided to close down of the Mission namely High Commission of India. Malta and Embassy of India. Ouagadougou (Burkina Faso). While the Mission in Malta has been closed down, the Mission in Ouagadougou will be closed down shortly. The expected amount of savings accruing to the Government of India per annum on account of closure of these two Missions is approximately Rs. 1.64 crores. A review of the recommendation of the ERC to close down the other five Missions is under consideration of the Ministry keeping in view the larger political implications of closing a Mission abroad.

(d) if so, the details thereof; and

(e) if not, the reasons therefor ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRIDIGVIJAY SINGH): (a) to (e) Yes. Sir. The U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom conducted a hearing on 10 June. 2002 on the subject of "Recent Communal Violence in Gujarat. India and response". The Commission is a non-official body mandated by the U.S. Congress. The international community is well aware that Government rejects any intrusive inquiry into the internal affairs of India. India's long tradition of secularism and its constitutional, legal and institutional safeguards for the rights and welfare of all citizens are well known.

Softness towards Pakistan despite Musharraf's support to Kashmir
